Dear Faculty,

The Microsoft Dynamics Academic Alliance is excited to share a unique opportunity for your recent graduates who may be interested in a career in marketing, sales, or technical sales. Microsoft is establishing a new, state of the art marketing and sales team in Fargo, North Dakota. If you have recent graduates or alumni who would be interested in marketing, sales or technical sales opportunities at Microsoft, please share this message with them. These positions will work with several Microsoft products including Microsoft Dynamics CRM Online. Interviews will be happening soon, so please encourage any interested students or recent graduates to apply soon.

Sincerely,

The Microsoft Dynamics Academic Alliance team

Microsoft is Hiring for our New Marketing & Sales Center!

Microsoft is empowering every person and every organization on the planet to do more and achieve more! We have set ourselves three bold ambitions: create more personal computing, reinvent productivity and business processes, and build the intelligent cloud. Join us today to become a part of our vision for the future of technology.

Our culture is centered on embracing a growth mindset, a theme of inspiring excellence and encouraging team members and leaders to bring their best each day. We are widely recognized as one of the Fortune's 100 Best Companies to work. We have offices and career opportunities in all 50 US states and 250+ countries around the world.

We invite you to start your journey in our new, state of the art US regional Marketing and Sales Center in Fargo, ND. As part of our team, you will chart a career across sales, technical sales and consulting as you help our customers leverage our leading cloud solutions to the fullest. There are multiple positions open for many different types of roles, all of which are detailed below.

Come and be a part of a multi-generational, diverse, and customer-obsessed team that demands excellence! Develop and apply your skills alongside the leading technology, marketing, and sales experts with the support of a world class training regimen in a dynamic, fast-paced sales environment. And most importantly, achieve your personal goals and advance your career whether you are looking to build on your sales and consulting experience or exploring how to leverage your current experience to dive into modern cloud. Note: Candidate must be located in Fargo or willing to relocate.
